Colorado Gives Day A Success

On Tuesday, December 8 Colorado demonstrated its philanthropic spirit by participating in Colorado Gives Day, a movement designed to inspire and unite Coloradoans to 'Give Where You Live' and support local nonprofits through online giving. During the 24 -hour giving event a total of $28.4 million was raised for Colorado nonprofits.

Regional champions, such as the Community Foundation of Northern Colorado, made it easy for donors to find and support organizations in their communities. Through NoCoGives.org, donors gave $1,303,292 to Larimer County nonprofits (preliminary number). The total will continue to rise thanks to the $1 million incentive fund provided by Community First Foundation and First Bank. Every nonprofit that received a donation on Colorado Gives Day will receive a proportionate share of the incentive fund. Generous Northern Colorado sponsors, Woodward and Bohemian Foundation, provided funding for prizes that will be awarded to Larimer County nonprofits. Each one of the participating nonprofits, listed below, received at least one donation during Colorado Gives Day 2015.

Participating Larimer County nonprofits are as follows: 3 Hopeful Hearts, A Child's Dream, A Place for Grace, Adopt Colorado Kids, Adoption Dreams Come True, Alliance for Suicide Prevention of Larimer County, Alpha Center, Alternatives to Violence, Animal House Rescue & Grooming, Animal Rescue of the Rockies, Audubon Rockies, B.A.S.E.
